1. Accommodation

AF Nice Residence

The residence is located just above l'Alliance; your classes are right on your doorstep! Check-in is from 3 pm on Sunday, and check-out is by 11 am on Saturday.

Enjoy your own individual studio complete with an ensuite and a kitchenette.

L'Alliance has a Café where you can enjoy breakfast and lunch at discounted rates.

2. Transport

Please note that travel to Nice is not included in the cost of the trip and must be arranged by the participant.

Airport transfers to the residence are not included, but a taxi transfer can be arranged as an optional extra upon request through Alliance Française Nice.

Nice has a good public transport system and its network of buses, trams, and even bikes make it easy to travel around the city.

The tram provides a direct link from the airport to l'Alliance.

3. Courses

Lessons from 9am to 1pm

You will need to take a level test before your stay to place you in the right group. The test will be sent to you in advance.

All course materials are provided, including exercise book and course book.

4. Cultural activities

Transport to and from activities is included. We will use a mixture of public transport or private transfers, depending on the destination

All tours and activities will be conducted in French, however all guides and instructors will adapt to the group's level so that everyone can follow and participate fully.
