1. Accommodation

Host families

Every family is chosen with care to give our students the best experience possible.

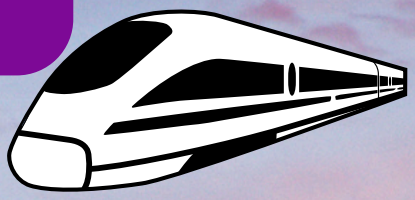

Our host families are mainly located in the city centre. The distance can vary from 5 minutes on foot to 30 minutes by bus.

Half-board includes breakfast and dinner.

Once you have registered, we will put you in contact with your host family to plan your arrival.

Before you arrive, simply provide a civil liability certificate and accept the host family charter.

2. Transport

Please note that travel to Rouen is not included in the cost of the trip and must be arranged by the participant.

Your host family will take care of transport on the first day. After that, you will travel independently between your host family and the Alliance for classes.

Rouen has a good public transport system and its network of buses, trams, and even bikes make it easy to travel around the city.

3. Courses

Lessons from 9am to 1pm, break at 11 am.

You will need to take a level test before your stay to place you in the right group. The test will be sent to you in advance.

Next, you can meet with a teacher to confirm your level.

All course materials are provided, including activity books, course books, pens and paper.

4. Cultural activities

Transport to and from activities is included. We will use a mixture of public transport or private transfers, depending on the destination

All tours and activities will be conducted in French, however all guides and instructors will adapt to the group's level so that everyone can follow and participate fully.
